

" § 66-23. Sale of electrical goods regulated.

Every person, firm or corporation before selling, offering for sale ~~or exposing for sale, at retail to the general public, assigning, or~~ disposing of by gift as premiums or in any similar manner any electrical material, devices, appliances or equipment shall first determine if such electrical materials, devices, appliances and equipment comply with the provision of this Article.

" § 66-24. Identification Marks Required.

All electrical materials, devices, appliances and equipment ~~offered for sale, exposed for sale at retail to the general public, or disposed of by gift as premiums or in any similar manner~~ shall have the maker's name, trademark, or other identification symbol placed thereon, together with such other markings giving voltage, current, wattage, or other appropriate ratings as may be necessary to determine the character of the material, device, appliance or equipment and the use for which it is intended; and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to remove, alter, change or deface the maker's name, trademark or other identification symbol.

" § 66-25. Acceptable listings as to safety of goods.

~~The electrical inspector shall accept, without further examination or test, the listings of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., as evidence of safety of such materials, etc., so long as the listing continues in effect to his knowledge and, so long as information and experience have not demonstrated, in his judgment, that any specific listed materials, etc., are not safe.~~

~~The electrical inspector may accept as evidence of safety of such materials, etc., not of types for which such Underwriters' Laboratories listings are in effect, such evidence by way of records of tests and examinations by bodies he deems properly qualified, as he deems necessary to assure him of the safety of such materials, etc. But such acceptance cannot be made to apply to other than the stock of materials, etc., for which such evidence has been specifically secured. One body whose evidence of safety shall be accepted by the electrical inspector for specific stocks is the Insurance Commission of the State of North Carolina, if the stock in question has been submitted to the examinations and tests required by that Commission, and that Commission has certified that in its judgment the stock conforms to the State law, to the requirements of this Article, and to any additional requirements deemed necessary for safety in the judgment of that Commission.~~

~~The electrical inspector may decline to accept any evidence of safety other than that provided by Underwriters' Laboratories listings, for specific materials, etc., of types for which such listings are available.~~
